Lyrics (Spoken)

Verse 1

She wanted to go to a party
 She wanted to go to a place where we could unwind
 Where we could listen to some old dusty records
 Just to spin around
 I felt the music hit my bones and I fell back
 I fell into the clouds
 My feet weren't touching the ground
 We started to float around

Verse 2

She said "I don't want to be buried in some salty soaked oakwood box sleeping underground
 I want my ashes to be spread above the clouds,
 I wanna go out guns blazing, with booze and songs being spilled from the top of the glass
 I guess that much we can agree upon
 We can float around
 'til our feet aren't touching the ground
